Dear Mr. Gulledge:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request submitted via the Internet on 26 July 2013, which was received by this office on 29 July 2013, for "An outline of the program "TEAMWEAVER", the start and end date of its operational use, which other agencies have access to use the technology that came out of the TEAMWEAVER project, and any other responsive document that describes the program's technical abilities or operational use." Your request has been assigned Case Number 73513. For the purpose of fee assessment, you have been placed into the "all other" category for this request. As such, you are allowed 2 hours of search and 100 pages of duplication at no cost to you. There are no assessable fees for this request; therefore, we did not address your request for a waiver of fees.

Your request has been processed under the provisions of the FOIA. A thorough search of our files was conducted, but no records responsive to your request were located.

The Initial Denial Authority for NSA information is the Associate Director for Policy and Records, David J. Sherman. The fact that we were unable to locate records responsive to your request may be considered by you as an adverse determination, and you are hereby advised of this Agency's appeal procedures. Any person notified of an adverse determination may file an appeal to the NSA/CSS Freedom of Information Act Appeal Authority. The appeal must be postmarked no later than 60 calendar days after the date of the initial denial letter. The appeal shall be in writing addressed to the NSA/CSS FOIA Appeal Authority (DJ4), National Security Agency, 9800 Savage Road STE 6248, Fort George G. Meade, MD 20755-6248. To aid in processing the appeal, it should reference the inability of the Agency to locate the records you seek, in sufficient detail and particularity, and the grounds upon which you
